THE FOODBAR is an urban purveyor of food and drink with a modern sensibility and personality all its own. THE FOODBAR was designed as a community gathering place with exceptional food, grab-and-go salads, soups, sandwiches, and daily specials, allowing diners to choose what most appeals to them and have their meals swiftly packed to go. Among the specialties are homemade granola, seasonal fresh fruits, pressed Cuban sandwiches, spit-roasted organic meats and fresh wild-caught seafood. Sinful dessert selections include classic cakes—from Grandma's chocolate layer to banana or coconut, as well as fresh fruit tarts, custards and chocolate pave. Rounding out the options are selections from the fresh juice bar, coffee and espresso, imported chocolates, as well as fine wines and beer to be enjoyed inside or outdoor at their café on the city square. THE FOODBAR's interior features a colorful hand-painted floor tile, tables of thick solid walnut, concrete benches with supple leather seat cushions and exquisite lighting. Long bench seating arranged in the European side-by-side fashion and a community table invite interaction and conversation with other patrons.
